

93rd Annual Convention of the Columbia County Volunteer Firefighters Association

November, 2017

Dear Friend of the Fire Service,

In 2018, The Columbia County Volunteer Firemen's Association will be celebrating its 93rd Annual Convention at The Germantown Hose Company No. 1, in Germantown, New York. In preparation for this event, the Chatham Fire Department will be coordinating the annual Year Book and Advertising Journal for the 2018 convention.

Columbia County is protected 100% by Volunteer Firefighters, and we hope that you will take this opportunity to support the Volunteer Fire Service of Columbia County. The collective service of these dedicated volunteers provides a tax savings to the businesses and residents of Columbia County well in excess of 12 million dollars, annually.

We are pleased to offer ad book opportunities to businesses and the emergency services, which will assist you in marketing your organization to the public and help support Columbia County's 100% all volunteer firefighters. Although our County volunteers belong to the fire and emergency services of Columbia County, they also provide mutual aid to many communities outside Columbia County as well. Businesses interested in supporting their firefighters by purchasing an ad in the upcoming 2018 convention Yearbook and Advertising Journal can do so by selecting the size and style of advertisement from the enclosed Advertisers Form. This year for your convince Advertisements may be electronically submitted to ccvfa19@gmail.com. Please submit electronic copy for your ad in JPEG or PDF format or mail camera ready art to the address below.

Please also complete the attached Yearbook and Advertising Journal form and submit your payment (made payable to the Chatham Fire Dept. Convention Committee) to:

The Chatham Fire Dept. Convention Committee
P.O. Box 58
Chatham, New York 12037

The DEADLINE to place and make this year's Book is March 31, 2018

All of our volunteer firefighters make considerable sacrifices to protect and serve our communities each hour of everyday, 365 days a year and we thank you in advance for supporting their ongoing efforts on behalf of the citizens and business of Columbia County.

Sincerely,

Chatham Fire Dept. Convention Committee
